BY THE NUMBERS

- 3 Louisville is third in the nation in turnover margin (+6.7) and is 30th in fewest turnovers per game (10.6). UofL has committed 10 or fewer turnovers in 15 of its last 26 games dating back to last year. The Cardinals are generating an average of 22.2 points per game off turnovers (season-high 35 at USF).
- 5 Louisville's national ranking in steals (9.6 per game). UofL has collected double-digit steals in 12 of its 23 games this season. Louisville is the only team to rank among the nation's top 10 in steals each of the last three seasons.
- 4 Four double-doubles in the last eight games for Montrezl Harrell, who had 15 points, five rebounds, two blocked shots and two steals at Houston in his last game.
- 4 After reaching his 1,600th point against Cincinnati, Russ Smith is one of just four players in Louisville history with career totals of at least 1,600 points, 300 assists and 200 steals.
- 3.47 Collective grade point average for the men's basketball team for the 2013 fall semester, a school record. A total of 14 of 15 student-athletes achieved a 3.0 or better GPA and 10 were above a 3.4 GPA. UofL earned the last three Big East Conference Team Academic Excellence Awards.
- .787 Louisville's winning percentage in February over the last seven years, posting a 37-10 record dating back to the 2007-08 season.

■ About Temple — After its second recent eightday break, Louisville plays its second straight on the road when the Cardinals face Temple in Philadelphia, Pa. on Thursday. Temple (6-15, 1-8 AAC) has lost 10 of his last 11 games, including falling 75-52 at SMU in its last game on Feb. 6. The Owls will play at Houston on Feb. 9 before facing the Cardinals. Temple is 15th in the nation in fewest turnovers per game (10.1), but had 15 in its loss at SMU, its second-highest of the year.

Temple is the only team in Division I to have four players averaging 14 or more points per game. Senior guard Dalton Pepper, who scored a career-high 33 points against Cincinnati on Jan. 26, leads the Owls in scoring (17.5 ppg, 4th AAC), three-pointers (2.9 pg, 1st AAC) and three-point percentage (.412, 7th). Junior forward Anthony Lee (14.0 ppg) leads The American in rebounding (9.2 rpg) and has eight double-doubles this season. Temple is No. 157 in the Sagarin Ratings and No. 166 in the ratings percentage index (RPI) through Feb. 2.

Louisville has dropped four of its five previous meetings with Temple. In the last matchup between the schools 12 years ago, Temple prevailed 65-62 over Louisville in the second round of the National Invitation Tournament played in Louisville's Freedom Hall (3-19-02).

- Conference Improvement Several Cardinals have stepped up their production since conference action began. While Luke Hancock is averaging 11.5 points on the season, his scoring average has risen to 15.8 in conference games, seventh best in The American. Leading scorer Russ Smith's scoring output has improved to 20.1 in league play -- second in the AAC -- while his 18.3 overall average is also second. In AAC stats, Smith leads the league in three-point field goal percentage (.531), and steals (2.0). Terry Rozier has jumped from a 7.0 scoring average overall to 8.6 in conference games, scoring seven or more in eight of his 10 AAC games.
- Taking Care of the Ball -- Louisville is 30th in the nation in fewest turnovers per game (10.6) and is 19th in assists-to-turnovers ratio (1.44) through games of Feb. 2. Louisville has committed 10 or fewer turnovers in 15 of its last 26 games, including the last three games of the Cardinals' 2013 championship season. The Cardinals have only 23 more turnovers than steals on the season.
- Card File Louisville forced Cincinnati into 20 turnovers, the seventh time a UofL opponent has committed at least 20 turnovers in a game this season ... In his last five games since coming off the bench, Wayne Blackshear has averaged 11.6 points while shooting 61.8 percent from the field, including burying 11-of-19 three-pointers. Blackshear, who was recognized on the AAC Honor Roll on Jan. 27, is fifth in league games in field goal percentage (.527). He missed the Cards' Feb. 6 game at Houston with a concussion ... Luke Hancock has scored in double figures in the last 10 straight games, including totaling 15 points, a season-high seven rebounds and two assists at Houston in his last game ... Louisville had an identical 19-4 record through 23 games last year during its NCAA Championship season ... Louisville hit a season-high 15 three-point goals against Houston in Louisville, including hitting 11-of-15 in the first half when the Cardinals shot 70 percent from the field overall (21-of-30). In the rematch in Houston, Louisville was just under that mark, hitting 69.6 percent in the first half (16-of-23) ... UofL shot 55.6 percent from the field at Houston, its 11th game at 50 percent or better this year. Louisville hit the 50 percent mark on 10 occasions in 2012-13 ... Russ Smith was honored as the AAC Player of the Week on Jan. 20 and has been featured on the league Honor Roll on nine occasions this season ... UofL has scored 90 or more points on seven occasions this year (five more than the entire 2012-13 season) ... UofL has won seven games by at least a 30-point margin this season and 12 of its 23 by at least 22 points. UofL leads the nation in scoring margin (+19.9) ... Montrezl Harrell has grabbed eight or more rebounds in 13 games this year, including four of his last eight games when he produced four of his five career double-doubles ... Louisville has been outrebounded in each of its four losses, including a 36-25 deficit against Cincinnati (second-worst of the season). The Cards have held a rebounding advantage just twice in their last 12 games. UofL and Houston each grabbed 29 rebounds in the Cardinals last game ... Louisville fought back from a 17-point second-half deficit against Cincinnati to take the lead, but faltered in the last few minutes ... Chris Jones produced his first double-figure scoring effort since December with 14 points, five steals and three assists at Houston ... Russ Smith is the only player in the American Athletic Conference to rank among the top three in league stats in all of scoring (20.1 ppg, 2nd), steals (2.0, 2nd), three-point percentage (.531, 1st), and three-pointers per game (2.6, 3rd).

- Computers Louisville is No. 14 in the Sagarin Ratings, No. 34 in the ratings percentage index (RPI) and No. 6 in the Pomeroy Ratings through Feb. 6.
- Thieving Cardinals -- Louisville has picked up where it left off last season with good defensive pressure, ranking third in the nation in turnover margin (+6.7) and fifth nationally in steals (9.6 per game). Louisville is sixth nationally in Ken Pomeroy's ratings, with the Cardinals 12th nationally in adjusted defense and 13th the nation in adjusted offense through Feb. 6. Last season, Louisville forced an average of 18.3 turnovers and collected double-digit steals in 28 of its 40 games. UofL, which was second in the nation in turnover margin (+5.9) and third in steals (10.8) a year ago, was rated as the top defense in the nation in Ken Pomeroy's 2012-13 rankings. Louisville is the only team to rank among the nation's top 10 in steals each of the last three seasons (8.8 steals in 2011-12, 7th in the nation: 9.3 steals in 2010-11. 7th in the nation). The Cardinals' 430 steals in 2012-13 was a new school record. Cardinal opponents had more turnovers than field goals in 14 games during the 2012-13 season, and that has occurred six times this season (against College of Charleston, Hartford, Fairfield, Southern Mississippi, FIU and USF).

- Career Milestones Russ Smith is just the fourth Louisville player in history with at least 1,600 career points, 300 assists and 200 steals (also Darrell Griffith, DeJuan Wheat and LaBradford Smith). He reached 1,600 points with 16 against Cincinnati. He is 12th in career scoring at Louisville with 1,656 points, 29 behind No. 11 Billy Thompson (1,685 points, 1982-86) and 30 behind No. 10 Wes Unseld (1,686, 1965-68) ... Smith is tied for fourth in career free throws at UofL with 428, 20 behind
- No. 3 Charlie Tyra (448). He is 63 short of the school record ... Smith is currently fourth in career steals at UofL with 224, four short of third place and 30 behind the career record of 254 set by Pevton Siva ... Smith handed out his 300th career assist at USF (314 total now) ... Luke Hancock has reached 1,180 career points between both George Mason and Louisville (576 at UofL). Hancock handed out his 100th assist in his two seasons at UofL in his last game at Houston ... Montrezl Harrell has 54 dunks this season -- third highest ever at UofL -- and 96 in his career, ranking seventh in career dunks. The single season record for dunks is 59 ... Luke Hancock needs four three-pointers for 100 in his two seasons at Louisville ... Russ Smith's 160 career threepointers are three short of the UofL top 10.

- Cardinal Spurts Over its 23 games this season, Louisville has produced 46 runs of 8-0 or better, including first-half runs of 9-0 and 8-0 at Houston in its last game. The Cardinals have forced their opponents into 56 scoring droughts of three minutes or more, including holding Houston scoreless for over three minutes on two occasions. UofL had five scoring runs of 8-0 or better against Cornell, including a season-best 20-0 scoring blast early in the game.
- Shooting, Defense are Keys Shooting percentages, both offensively and defensively, have been keys to the Cardinals' success this season. In its four losses, Louisville opponents have collectively shot 49.3 percent from the field while Cardinal opponents have made just 37.6 percent of its shots in Louisville's 19 victories on the season. Offensively, Louisville has connected on 49.1 percent from the field in its 19 victories this season and shot 40.3 percent in its four losses. The Cardinals were also Louisville in NCAA Statistics outrebounded in each of its four losses.

■ Cards Among National Statistical Leaders

— Louisville ranks among the nation's top 30 in eight statistical categories through games of Feb. 6. Individually Russ Smith is 79th in assists (4.7) and 83rd in steals (1.8), Chris Jones is 55th in steals (2.0), Luke Hancock is 74th in free throw pct. (.849) and Montrezl Harrell is fourth in field goal percentage (.621).

■ Cards Have Seven Ranked Teams —

Louisville is one of three schools in the nation with its football and men's and women's basketball teams all currently ranked among the nation's AP Top 25 (also Duke and Oklahoma State). In addition, the Cardinals' men's soccer team finished 17th in the NSCAA rankings, field hockey 14th in the NFHCA poll, and the UofL men's (14th) and women's (13th) swimming and diving teams are both ranked in the CSCAA poll to give the Cardinals seven currently nationally ranked teams. UofL has won 2013 American Athletic Conference championships in men's cross country, field hockey, men's soccer and volleyball. Louisville's football team (12-1, 15th USA Today/15th AP) beat Miami (Fla.) by a 36-9 score in the Russell Athletic Bowl on Dec. 28.

■ Cards Have Been Tough on the Road — UofL has a 50-28 record over the last eight years on its opponent's home court (.641). Louisville had the most road victories of any school in Big East Conference games over it the last seven years in that league and is 4-0 in its road games in The American this season. The Cardinals have a 42-24 record in conference games on the road over the last eight seasons (.636). In neutral site games, Louisville has a 21-3 record over the last three years (.875) and a 31-10 neutral site record over the last six years (.756).

In conference games overall, Louisville had the most Big East Conference victories over its eight years in that league during the regular season (from 2005 to 2013). Louisville had a 95-45 Big East record in league victories during the regular season, just ahead of Syracuse and Pittsburgh (both at 92-48).

- League Starts -- The Cardinals have started at least 8-2 in their conference games five times in UofL Coach Rick Pitino's 13 seasons. UofL has started at least 9-2 in its conference through 11 games on three occasions in the past 12 years under Pitino (2008-09, 2004-05 and 2002-03).
- Louisville Top College Basketball Market -- Louisville is consistently the highest-rated television market for college basketball, according to an ESPN analysis over the last 12 years. Louisville has been the top market each of the last 11 years, averaging a 4.1 rating or higher over the past five seasons. Louisville's 5.1 rating during this season through mid-January was nearly two points higher than the next closest market (Greensboro, N.C., 3.3 rating).
- Mathiang Improvement Many have sought to compare freshman center Mangok Mathiang with former UofL and current Minnesota Timberwolves center Gorgui Dieng at similar stages of their careers with UofL. As the numbers attest below, their statistics are similar for their freshmen years. Mathiang (210 pounds) has found it more of a challenge to add weight to his frame than did Dieng, who left the Cardinals weighing 245 pounds.

■ UofL Athletic Hall of Fame — The University of Louisville Athletics Hall of Fame welcomed five new members when Sean Green (baseball 1998-2000), Tara McClure Isable (softball, 2000-01), Chris Redman (football 1996-99), Pip Sanders (field hockey, 1999-02) and DeJuan Wheat (basketball, 1993-97) were inducted as the Class of 2014 on Jan. 11. The group was also honored at the Cardinals' Jan. 12 men's basketball game against SMU.

Louisville's No. 2 all-time scorer with 2,183 points, DeJuan Wheat was the first player in NCAA history with career totals of at least 2,000 points, 450 assists (498 total, fifth most in school history), 300 three-point goals (323 total, second most at Louisville) and 200 steals (204 total, seventh most in school history).

A third team All-America honoree by Basketball Times and a finalist for the 1997 Naismith Player of the Year Award, Wheat's honored jersey hangs in the KFC Yum! Center. The 6-0 guard started a school-record 136 consecutive games and is the Cardinals' all-time leader in minutes played with 4,560. With a scoring high of 35 points against UAB, Wheat is the only player in school history to lead the Cardinals in scoring and assists for three seasons. During his collegiate career, Wheat helped guide Louisville to a combined 95-41 record with four NCAA Tournament appearances, including advancing to the Sweet 16 and the Elite Eight in his last two seasons. After Louisville, he played 12 seasons of professional basketball internationally.

Each team played two games at campus sites Nov. 11-20, as well as the final two games at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. on Nov. 23-24. Louisville participated in the Naismith Bracket with Fairfield. North Carolina and Richmond while the Springfield Bracket included Belmont, Hartford, Hofstra and Holy Cross. Louisville's Russ Smith and Chris Jones were named to the alltournament team for the Naismith Bracket, which also included Richmond's Cedrick Lindsay and North Carolina's Marcus Paige (MVP) and Brice Johnson.

- 100th Season of Cardinal Basketball This year marks the 100th season of intercollegiate basketball at the University of Louisville. While the Cardinals played their first official men's basketball game on Jan. 28, 1912 when they lost 35-3 to Louisville YMCA, UofL did not field teams in 1916-17, 1922-23 or 1942-43. UofL has amassed an all-time 1,715-873 record its 100th season. The Cardinals are 12th among all NCAA schools in victories. The Cardinals have produced winning seasons in 65 of the last 68 years, including winning 20 or more games in the last 11 straight seasons.
- King Luke -- Luke Hancock, the Most Outstanding Player of the 2013 NCAA Final Four, was crowned as Homecoming King at the Cardinals' Oct. 19 homecoming game against UCF. He edged out teammate Russ Smith, who was also one of the five finalists for the honor. It was the third time in the last four years that a member of the men's basketball team was selected as homecoming king, joining Peyton Siva (2011) and Kyle Kuric (2010) who also won the award.
- Cards Streak Reached 21 Louisville won 21 consecutive games dating back to last season -- setting a new school record -- before falling to North Carolina on Nov. 24. UofL closed its 2013 NCAA Championship season winning its last 16 games of the season. Seven of the Cards' 10 Final Four teams had winning streaks of at least 13 games during those years. After UofL ended its 1980 and 1986 NCAA title years with winning streaks, they both lost opening games the following years. The loss to North Carolina was UofL's first since Feb. 9.

■ Improvement From Long Range -- The Cardinals buried

12 three-point goals at USF four games ago, their 11th game with at least nine threes this season. UofL buried a season-high 15 three-point goals vs. Houston in Louisville, making 11-of-15 threes in the first half. Five Cardinals have buried at least 24 threes this season. Last year, the Cards made nine or more three-pointers in five games for the entire season. UofL leads the AAC in three-pointers per game (8.1, 30th nationally).

■ Third NCAA Title for Cardinals -- Louisville won its third NCAA Championship in 2013 and its first in 27 years. The Cardinals also won the 1980 and 1986 NCAA titles. It was the fifth national championship in men's basketball for UofL, as the Cardinals won the 1956 NIT Championship and 1948 NAIB title. It was the second NCAA Championship for Coach Rick Pitino, who previously led Kentucky to the 1996 title. Pitino is the first coach to win an NCAA Championship at two schools. UofL is one of 14 schools that has won multiple NCAA Championships and is one of eight universities with at least three titles.

three coaches have coached more Final Four teams than Pitino's seven, a feat matched by one other. Pitino became the first coach to lead three different teams to the Final Four in 2005. Louisville's NCAA Final Four teams: 1959, 1972, 1975, 1980, 1982, 1983, 1986, 2005, 2012, 2013.

■ Cards Won Record Total — Louisville won a school-record 35 games during 2012-13. UofL's 1980 NCAA Championship team (33-3) and 2005 Final Four team (33-

5) held the previous mark with two fewer wins. Louisville reached 30 wins on the season for the seventh time in school history and won 30 games in back-to-back seasons for the first time in school history (30-10 in 20011-12). Louisville is one of just four schools that has won 30 or more games in at least three of the last five seasons, joining Duke, Kansas and Syracuse. UofL coach Rick Pitino has won 30 or more games on seven occasions, tied for third most all-time.

- Year of the Cardinal -- Louisville's athletic teams experienced incredible success during the 2012-13 season.
- Louisville is the first university ever to win a BCS Bowl game, place both its men's and women's basketball teams in the NCAA Final Four and reach the College World Series in the same season. In addition to the Cardinals' NCAA men's basketball title, UofL's women's team was the national runner-up to Connecticut. The Cardinals' football team beat then No. 3/4 Florida 33-23 in the 2013 Sugar Bowl on Jan. 2. UofL's baseball team won a record 51 games while reaching a visit to Omaha.
- Louisville's combined 126 wins in its four highly visible sports (baseball, men's and women's basketball, and football) was just three wins short of the NCAA record for a single season (126-30, .808 winning percentage).
- Louisville's combined 75 wins in football and men's and women's basketball was just five victories shy of the NCAA record for a single season (75-21, .781 winning percentage).
- Louisville was the only school in the nation with its football and men's and women's basketball teams all ranked among the nation's AP Top 20.
- Louisville had 11 teams ranked among the nation's top 25 in final polls: Men's Basketball (USA Today, 1st); Women's Basketball (USA Today, 3rd); Men's Soccer (TopDrawerSoccer, 7th); Baseball (NCBWA, 9th); Football (AP, 13th); Men's Swimming & Diving (CSCAA Coaches, 14th); Women's Swimming & Diving (CSCAA Coaches, 15th); Volleyball (AVCA, 17th); Softball (USA Today/NFCA, 19th); Rowing (CRCA/USRowing, 20th); Field Hockey (NFHCA, 25th).
- Louisville is the only university in the nation over the last seven years (since 2007) to have participated in multiple BCS bowl games, College World Series, and men's and women's Final Fours.
- Louisville is one of just four schools in the BCS era (since 1998) to win football, men's basketball and baseball conference titles in the same season (Stanford 1999-00, Texas 2005-06, Louisville 2012-13, Kansas State 2012-13).
- Louisville athletics teams posted 49 victories over top 25 nationally ranked opponents during the 2012-13 season.
- Louisville's student-athletes achieved remarkable success in the classroom, posting a record 3.124 cumulative GPA for all 23 sports. Additionally, a school-best 355 student-athletes earned AD Honor Roll status for the 2012 fall semester (3.0 GPA).
- UofL accepted an invitation to join the Atlantic Coast Conference on Nov. 28, 2012

- Hancock Reaches 1,000 Luke Hancock has reached the 1,000 career collegiate points plateau from two different schools. He scored 604 in two seasons at George Mason and has 576 at Louisville for a 1,180 career total.
- Pitino a 2013 Hall of Fame Inductee U of L head coach Rick Pitino was enshrined in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on Sept. 8, 2013 in Springfield, Mass. The Cardinals' coach was part of a 12-member class that included former NBA All-Stars Gary Payton, Bernard King and Richie Guerin; former ABA All-Star Roger Brown; former college coaches Jerry Tarkanian and Guy Lewis; former WNBA All-Star Dawn Staley; North Carolina women's coach Sylvia Hatchell; African-American basketball pioneer E.B. Henderson; NBA deputy commissioner Russ Granik; and former Brazilian great Oscar Schmidt.
- Academic Performance at All-Time High -- While the University of Louisville men's basketball team has performed well on the court, the Cardinals have excelled in the classroom as well. The team produced a record 3.47 combined GPA for the 2013 fall semester, the highest ever for the Cardinals and the highest among UofL's nine men's sports programs. A total of 14 of 15 Cardinals earned a 3.0 or better, with 10 above a 3.4 GPA. The men's basketball team has been around a collective 3.0 GPA for 11 straight semesters. The 14 men's basketball players were among a record 371 student-athletes recognized on the UofL Athletic Director's Honor Roll, highlighting those that achieve a 3.0 GPA or higher for a semester. The full group of 371 was honored at halftime of the Cardinals' Jan. 16 men's basketball game against Houston.

The academic achievement is not new to the Cardinals. Louisville received an NCAA Public Recognition Award in 2013 for ranking among the top 10 percent in men's basketball in the Academic Progress Rate, which measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation for student-athletes.

UofL's men's basketball team earned the last three Big East Conference Team Academic Excellence Awards, which recognizes the highest collective grade-point averages in each of the conference's 23 sports. The team produced a collective 3.295 grade point average for the 2012-13 academic year, with a previous semester record 3.41 combined GPA for the fall semester.

Major individual academic awards were also won as well over the past year. Russ Smith received the 2012-13 Big East Conference Scholar-Athlete Sports Excellence Award for men's basketball. He was also honored with a 2013 Scholar Baller Academic Momentum Award, which is presented to an individual based on the level of academic improvement and the impact of that academic momentum. Wayne Blackshear won the 2013 NCAA Men's Basketball Elite 89 Award, presented to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative grade-point average participating in the finals site for each of the NCAA championships. Former Cardinal guard Peyton Siva was a 2013 Capital One CoSIDA Academic All-America second team selection and was named the 2013 Big East Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

HEAD COACH RICK PITINO

In 29 seasons as a collegiate head coach and 13 at Louisville, UofL Coach Rick Pitino has compiled a 683-243 overall record (329-115 at UofL). He is the first coach to take three different schools to the NCAA Final Four -including his 2005, 2012 and 2013 Cardinal teams -- and first to win an NCAA Championship at two different schools after guiding Louisville to the 2013 NCAA title. Among active coaches, Pitino (Massachusetts '74) has the secondhighest winning percentage in NCAA Tournament games (.750 winning percentage, 48-16 record in 18 NCAA tournament appearances) and his overall .735 winning percentage ranks him 12th among active coaches. He guided Kentucky to three NCAA Final Four appearances in eight seasons (1989-97), winning the 1996 NCAA Championship and reaching the national title game in 1997. He has also served as head coach at Providence College (1985-87, 1987 Final Four), Boston University (1978-83), Hawaii (last six games in 1975-76) as well as the NBA New York Knicks (1987-89) and Boston Celtics (1997-2001). Pitino dropped his one previous matchup against Temple.

- Tickets Available -- A limited number of tickets for UofL's home men's basketball games in the KFC Yum! Center are on sale. Tickets, $39 each, are on sale at the UofL Ticket Office, located near Gate 2 of Papa John's Cardinal Stadium at 2800 South Floyd Street. The ticket office is open weekdays from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Cardinal fans may also purchase tickets by visiting Ticketmaster online, calling 1-800-745-3000 or by visiting any Ticketmaster Ticket Center.
- Cards Compete in American UofL athletic teams are competing in the American Athletic Conference during the 2013-14 season. Conference realignment shifted the Cardinals from their eight-year affiliation in the BIG EAST Conference, in which a group of universities began a new league under that same name. Louisville accepted an invitation to join the Atlantic Coast Conference on Nov. 28, 2012 and will soon move on to join that 15-member league. The American's 2014 men's basketball postseason tournament will be played in Memphis' FedEx Forum.

- Success vs. Top 25 Foes -- Cincinnati was the fourth ranked opponent the Cardinals have faced this season. Louisville has won 19 of its last 32 against Associated Press ranked opponents, falling vs. No. 13 Cincinnati in its last top 25 matchup. Louisville has a 37-27 record against Top 25 teams over the last six years, including a 23-23 record during the regular season (0-4 this year, 6-3 last year). UofL has been victorious six of the last 11 times it has faced an AP top-five opponent. UofL has won 15 of its last 30 games when facing Top 10 teams, spanning the last seven years.
  - Cards Chosen First in American Preseason Poll U of L was the unanimous choice to win the inaugural 2013-14 American Athletic Conference championship in a preseason poll of league coaches. UofL guard Russ Smith was honored as the preseason Player of the Year while teammate Chane Behanan was selected to the preseason all-conference first team and Montrezl Harrell was a second-team pick. SMU freshman guard Keith Frazier was named The American's preseason Rookie of the Year. The league championship will be staged March 12-15 at Memphis' FedEx Forum.

- Cards Sixth All-Time in the Polls Louisville has been ranked in the Associated Press poll on 562 occasions, sixth most all-time. U of L has been ranked among the nation's top 10 in the preseason poll for the last two years (second in 2012-13, ninth in 2011-12). Louisville has been ranked 18th or higher over the last 34 straight polls.
- Cards Have 11 Straight 20-Win Seasons Louisville is one of eight Division I schools in the nation which has won 20 or more games in each of the past 11 seasons. Kansas tops the list with 24 consecutive years, followed by Duke (17), Syracuse (16), Gonzaga (16), Florida (15), Pittsburgh (12), Utah State (12) and Louisville (11). UofL Coach Rick Pitino has won at least 20 games in a season on 21 occasions, ranking him sixth among active coaches in 20-win seasons and 16th overall. Pitino won 30 in a single season for the sixth time last year. UofL has won at least 20 games in 40 of the last 44 years. Louisville is just three victories short of another 20-win season this year.
- Cards Lost Two to NBA -- Two Cardinals who were starters on UofL's 2013 NCAA Championship team are rookies in the NBA. Guard Peyton Siva earned his degree and was drafted in the NBA second round and 56th overall by the Detroit Pistons. He had a two-week stint with their developmental league team, the Fort Wayne Mad Ants, before returning to Detroit. Center Gorgui Dieng departed after his junior season and was drafted in the NBA first round and 21st overall by the Utah Jazz, then was subsequently traded to the Minnesota Timberwolves.
- Cards Won Two BIG EAST Championships -- Louisville captured both the BIG EAST tournament championship and shared the league regular season title during the 2012-13 season. Louisville shared the regular season championship with Georgetown and Marquette, each of which posted a 14-4 conference record. It was the second regular season title for the Cardinals in their eight years in the league, also winning in 2009. Louisville won its second straight BIG EAST tournament championship in New York's Madison Square Garden, recovering from a 16-point deficit to beat Syracuse 78-61 in the title game. It was the Cardinals' third tournament title in the last five years, also winning the 2009 and 2012 championship. Louisville was the first repeat BIG EAST tournament champion in seven years, since Syracuse won the tournament title in 2005 and 2006. Louisville reached the championship game of the tournament for the fourth time in the last five years and third straight.

Louisville moved to the American Athletic Conference in 2013. The Cardinals will make another change later to the Atlantic Coast Conference, having accepted an invitation to join the ACC on Nov. 28, 2012.

■ Behanan Dismissed From Team -- Junior forward Chane Behanan was dismissed from the Cardinals' basketball team on Dec. 30 for a violation of university policy. Behanan averaged 8.3 points, 6.2 rebounds and shot 67.3 percent from the field in 11 games this season. He had two double-doubles on the season, including season highs of 13 points and 12 rebounds against Cornell on Nov. 15. Behanan was suspended from the team in mid-October for a month.

A preseason All-American Athletic Conference selection, Behanan averaged 9.8 points, 6.5 rebounds, shot 50.7 percent from the field and totaled 54 steals as a sophomore last season while starting 37 games. He was named to the NCAA Final Four All-Tournament team, producing a double-double against Michigan in the national championship game with 15 points and 12 rebounds.

■ Fab February — UofL has a 37-10 record (.787) during the month of February over the last seven years, dating back to the 2007-08 season (2-0 this year, 6-1 last season, 5-3 in 2011-12, 5-2 in 2010-11 and 2008-09, 6-2 in 2009-10, 8-0 in 2007-08).

■ Second Highest Preseason

Ranking -- Louisville's No. 3 preseason AP ranking was its second-highest ever. The Cardinals were No. 2 in the 2012-13 and 1986-87 seasons. The 1986-87 season marked the highest the Cardinals have been ranked in the preseason coaches' poll, when UofL was tabbed No. 1 in the 1986-87 UPI coaches poll. UofL was No. 2 in both the preseason AP and USA Today polls last season.

The Cardinals have been ranked as the No. 1 team in the nation on four occasions: in both the AP and USA Today polls on Jan. 14, 2013; in the ESPN/USA Today poll on March 15, 2009; in the final Associated Press poll that same 2008-09 season; and in the final USA Today coaches poll of 2012-13.

- Cards Seeking Rare Feat Louisville Coach Rick Pitino has talked about the possibility of the Cardinals creating a mini-dynasty should they be able to reach the NCAA Final Four for a third straight year and win a third straight conference tournament championship. In the last 35 years, only one school has accomplished that combined three-peat of consecutive Final Fours and conference tournament titles: UCLA from 2006-08. Louisville reached the 2012 Final Four, won the 2013 NCAA title and won the Big East Conference tournament championship each of the last two seasons.
- Billy Minardi Classic Champs Louisville beat Western Kentucky 79-63 on Dec. 14 to win the Billy Minardi Classic, presented by Kentucky One Health, Sun Tan City and Planet Fitness. The event originated in 2002 to honor the memory of Billy Minardi, brother-in-law of U of L Coach Rick Pitino who died in the Sept. 11 terrorist attack on the World Trade Center. Chane Behanan earned MVP honors with 11 points, seven rebounds and 5-of-6 shooting from the field off the bench. Louisville has won 11 championships in 12 years in the event, in which the Cardinals have a 15-1 record.
- Tough Schedule Louisville's 2012-13 schedule was ranked as the fourth toughest in the nation by the ratings percentage index (RPI). The Cardinals schedule this year may not reach that status, but 20 of Louisville's 31 games will be played against teams that won at least 18 games last season. Nearly half of the Cards' games will be played against teams that participated in postseason competition in 2013, including eight NCAA tournament participants. Five opponents have been ranked among the nation's top 25 this season.
- Smith a Senior CLASS Award Candidate UofL guard Russ Smith has been selected as one of 30 candidates for the 2013-14 Senior CLASS Award in collegiate basketball. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence community, classroom, character and competition. The candidates will be narrowed to 10 finalists midway through the regular season, and those names will be placed on the official ballot. Ballots will be distributed through a nationwide voting system to media, coaches and fans, who will select one men's finalist and one women's finalist who best exemplifies excellence in the four Cs of community, classroom, character and competition. The Senior CLASS Award winner will be announced during the 2014 NCAA Final Four.
- Non-Conference Success -- UofL has a 162-39 record (.806) against non-conference opponents in Coach Rick Pitino's 13 seasons (includes post-season), including a 115-10 record at home (14-7 away). UofL has a 42-4 mark at home in non-conference games over the last four seasons.
- Fourth Season in KFC Yum! Center -- Louisville is in its fourth season in the spectacular KFC Yum! Center, located on the banks of the Ohio River in downtown Louisville. The Cardinals had previously played basketball for 54 years in Freedom Hall (1956-2010). The 22,000-seat multi-purpose arena was built at a cost of $238 million, includes 71 luxury suites, 62 four- or six-seat premium boxes, over 2,000 side-court club seats and four party suites with a seating capacity of 32 each.

U of L's men's and women's teams have permanent locker rooms. There are five additional team locker rooms, two officials locker rooms, five star dressing rooms, a full-function media work room and a full-sized basketball practice court on the event level. The seven levels of the arena (including the upper catwalk) include a collective 721,762 square feet, or roughly the area of 13 football fields.

After passing through the one and a half acre landscaped entry plaza that features a basketball-themed fountain, entering fans can visit the 2,500-square foot U of L adidas store, the 3,000-square foot U of L Hall of Honor, or head to their seats using one of the eight escalators or seven elevators within the building.

Lounge space is abundant within the arena. Four spacious donor rooms are available for Cardinal fans, including three that overlook the Ohio River. The 7.000-square foot main concourse restaurant overlooks the river and a main concourse sports bar has views directly into the arena bowl. Two 4,000-square foot club lounges on the event level, as well as the terrace club and premium box lounges, provide amenities for their respective patrons. The KFC Yum! Center served as the site for the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament second and third rounds in March 2012, will be the site for a similar event in March 2015 and was the site for the 2012 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship on December 13 and 15.

Rutgers (9-14, 3-7 AAC) has lost five of his last six games, including falling 101-69 at Memphis in its last game on Feb. 4. The Scarlet Knights will play at USF on Feb. 8 and a home game against SMU on Feb. 13 before facing the Cardinals.

Myles Mack is Rutgers' top scorer, averaging 16.1 points per game. He has 11 double-digit scoring efforts this season and 49 for his career. Kadeem Jack is the Scarlet Knights' top rebounder, averaging 7.0 rebounds and 14.3 points with 20 blocked shots on the season. Head coach Eddie Jordan, who helped Rutgers reach the 1976 Final Four as a player, is in his first year guiding the Scarlet Knights.

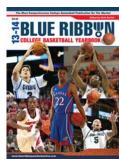

Louisville and Rutgers are short-time members of the American as the Cardinals will leave for the Atlantic Coast Conference and Rutgers to the Big Ten next season. Rutgers is No. 208 in the ratings percentage index (RPI) and 200th in the Sagarin ratings through games of Feb. 6.

Louisville has a 12-1 series record against Rutgers, winning the last eight straight. The Cardinals prevailed 83-76 earlier this season at Rutgers (1-4-14) as Russ Smith led UofL with 22 points.

■ Russdiculous Covers — Louisville guard Russ Smith was featured on the covers of multiple early season covers this year, including sharing the cover of one of four regional Sports Illustrated covers for the Nov. 18 college basketball preseason issue.

Cardinals in the NCAA Tournament

■ Louisville made its 39th NCAA Tournament appearance in 2013. The Cardinals have reached the NCAA Tournament 30 of the last 37 years (seven straight, 10 of the last 11, 12 of the last 15 years, 18 of last 22). The Cards have reached the Sweet 16 on 19 occasions and have advanced to the Eight four of the last six seasons.

Louisville is sixth in tournament victories (70) and is fifth in NCAA Tournament appearances (39). UofL has a 70-40 overall NCAA Tournament record, reaching the Final Four 10 times.

- Only four teams -- Kentucky (52), North Carolina (44), UCLA (43), and Kansas (42) -- have more NCAA Tournament appearances than Louisville's 39.
- U of L Coach Rick Pitino has a 48-16 record in NCAA Tournament play (.750), ranking him second among active coaches in winning percentage and 10th all time. Only three coaches have coached more Final Four teams than Pitino's seven, a feat matched by one other. Pitino is the first coach to lead three different teams to the Final Four; is one of eight coaches to lead four different schools to the NCAA Tournament; and one of 10 active collegiate coaches who have won an NCAA Championship.

- Only four teams have been to more Sweet 16 appearances than Louisville's 19 since the NCAA began Sweet 16 records in 1975 (North Carolina 25, Kentucky 24, Duke 23 and Kansas 20).
- U of L Coach Rick Pitino has guided 18 teams to NCAA tournament appearances, including 10 of his last 11 years at Louisville (seven straight). His last six straight Kentucky teams reached the NC six straight Kentucky teams reached the NCAA Tournament. The Wildcats won the 1996 NCAA title and were national runner-up in 1997 under his guidance.

■ Louisville advanced to its 19th NCAA Sweet 16 in 2012-13. Only four teams have been to more Sweet 16 appearances than Louisville's 19.

■ All-America Russ -- Louisville senior guard Russ Smith was named to the Associated Press preseason, five-man All-America team. He is only the second Cardinal ever selected to the team joining Pervis Ellison, who was chosen on the first preseason team prior to the 1986-87 season. He is on the US Basketball Writer's Association mid-season Oscar Robertson Trophy Watch List, John Wooden Award midseason watch list and Naismith Trophy Watch List for national player of the year.

Smith is on the All-America first team by 2013-14 Blue Ribbon College Basketball Yearbook and graces the cover of the publication. The preseason American Athletic Conference Player of the Year, Smith is also a preseason first-team All-America selection by CBSSports.com.

The 2013 NCAA Midwest Regional Most Outstanding Player, Smith was named to three national All-America teams last season. He was named to the third team of All-America teams selected by the Associated Press, NABC, and The Sporting News. Smith was honored as the 2012-13 National Player of the Year by Ken Pomeroy.

■ Cardinals Have 109 Wins in Last Four Years --UofL has won a combined 109 victories over the last four seasons, fourth-most in the nation over that period behind Kansas (115), Syracuse (113) and Ohio State (112) (including this season, through games of Feb. 6). The Cards won a school-record 35 games last season while winning the NCAA title.

■ Cardinals' Basketball Signing Class Among Nation's Best -- Five impressive high school products, including one from abroad, have each signed a national letter-of-intent to continue their basketball playing careers at the University of Louisville, ranking this Cardinal group among the nation's top recruiting classes.

The list of highly-touted signees consists of Shaqquan Aaron, a 6-7, 175-pound guard from Rainier Beach High School in Seattle, Wash.; Jaylen Johnson, a 6-9, 215-pound forward from Ypsilanti (Mich.) High School; Chinanu Onuaku, a 6-10, 230-pound forward/center from Lanham, Md. and Riverdale Baptist High School; Quentin Snider, a 6-1, 170-pound guard from Ballard High School in Louisville; and Matz Stockman, a 7-2, 238-pound forward/center from Oslo, Norway.

Shaqquan Aaron averaged 17.7 points, 8.3 rebounds and 4.3 assists as a junior last season in helping Rainier Beach to a 25-4 record and the Washington Class 3A state championship. He had nine points and three rebounds in the 62-59 overtime victory in the title game over Lakeside.

A first-team AP Class 3A all-state selection as a junior, Aaron is ranked No. 14 nationally by 247Sports.com, 27th by Rivals.com, 34th by Scout.com and is No. 33 in the ESPN 100. His season scoring high as a junior was 38 points. He is the third Seattle product to play for the Cardinals in recent years, joining Peyton Siva (2009-13), UofL's starting point guard on the 2013 NCAA Championship team; and Terrence Williams (2005-09), who led UofL to two NCAA Elite Eight appearances and also played at Rainier Beach.

Jaylen Johnson averaged 13.8 points and 8.5 rebounds as a junior last season in helping Ypsilanti to a 20-5 record and the school's first regional championship since 1981. He averaged 19.7 points and 15.3 rebounds in three district games before Ypsilanti reached the state quarterfinals, where Johnson totaled 15 points and 12 boards.

A first-team all-county selection as a junior, Johnson is ranked No. 55 nationally by 247Sports.com, 56th by Rivals.com, 62nd by Scout.com and is No. 57 in the ESPN 100. His mother Janetta Johnson played for Wisconsin and professionally in Portugal. Her 130 blocked shots in 1988-89 is the Badgers' single-season record and she averaged a team-high 12.6 points and 8.5 rebounds that season.

Chinanu Onuaku (name pronounced Chih-NAH-noo On-ooh-AH-koo) averaged 8.2 points, 10.6 rebounds and 3.4 blocked shots as a junior last season in helping Riverdale Baptist achive a 26-10 record and the Capital Beltway League title.

Onuaku is ranked No. 64 nationally by 247Sports.com, 65th by Rivals.com, 69th by Scout.com and is No. 74 in the ESPN 100. He led his DC Assault AAU team to the Under Armour Summer Jam title as the event's second-leading rebounder. Also on the AAU circuit, he played on the Adidas Nations championship team and was named to the Reebok Breakout Classic All-Star game. His brother Arinze Onuaku played for Syracuse from 2005-10 and opened this season on the New Orleans Pelicans roster.

Quentin Snider averaged 19.3 points, 4.5 assists, 3.3 rebounds and 2.0 steals as a junior last season in helping Ballard High School to a 32-5 record and the Kentucky state championship game, where the Bruins fell 65-64 to Madison Central.

A first-team all-state selection and the seventh region player of the year as a junior, Snider is ranked No. 31 nationally by Rivals.com, 32nd by Scout.com, 35th in the ESPN 100 and 51st by 247Sports.com. He connected on 40.2 percent of his three-point goals and 78.2 percent of his free throw attempts last season.

DeJuan Wheat (1993-97), the Cardinals' No. 2 all-time scorer, and Jerry Eaves (1978-82), the starting point guard on UofL's 1980 NCAA Championship team, were also graduates of Ballard High School.

Matz Stockman (pronounced Motts) is currently enrolled at the Canarias Basketball Academy in Gran Canaraia in Spain's Canary Islands. He averaged 7.7 points, 5.3 rebounds and 2.5 blocked shots over nine games while playing for Norway in the 2013 U18 European Championships. He scored 18 points against Holland in 21 minutes for his top scoring effort in that event and blocked eight shots against Romania.

Stockman, who has a 7-6 wingspan, will be the first seven-footer to play for the Cardinals since Felton Spencer, a 7-0 center from Louisville who scored 1,168 points at UofL from 1986-90. David Schrag, a 7-1 center from Winterthur, Switzerland, who prepped at Maine Central Institute, initially signed to play with the Cardinals in 1997 but went to Vincennes instead.

■ Cards Men, Women Among Top Teams -- Louisville is one of four schools in the nation with both its men's and women's teams ranked among the nation's top 20 teams (UofL women #4), joining Duke, Kentucky and Oklahoma State with that distinction. Louisville was the only school in the nation last season with its football and men's and women's basketball teams all ranked among the nation's AP Top 20: Men's Basketball (USA Today, 1st); Women's Basketball (USA Today, 3rd); Football (AP, 13th).

- Smith on Wooden Award List --Louisville's Russ Smith is among the John R. Wooden Award Midseason Top 25 announced on Jan. 22. The players on the list are considered strong candidates for the the official voting ballot, which will consist of approximately 20 top players who have proven they are also making progress toward graduation and maintaining at least a cumulative 2.0 GPA. UofL forward Montrezl Harrell had been among the preseason top 50 candidates for the award. The Wooden Award All American Team, consisting of the nation's top 10 players, will be announced the week of the NCAA Tournament regional final. Michigan's Trey Burke won the 2013 Wooden Award presented by Wendy's.
- Smith, Harrell on Naismith Trophy Watch List -- Louisville's Russ Smith and Montrezl Harrell are also on the Naismith Trophy Early Season Watch List, announced by the Atlanta Tipoff Club. UofL is one of 13 schools with at least two candidates in contention for the prestigious national player of the year award.
- Scoring Clamp -- Southern Miss'
  13 points in the first half on Nov. 29 are tied for the fourth fewest points allowed in a half by Louisville since 1972-73. It equals the second half total by Samford on Nov. 15, 2012 (42-13). Southern Miss' 38 total points marked the seventh time in the last four years UofL has held an opponent under 40 points.

■ 26 Former Pitino Assistants/Players Became Head Coaches -- UofL Coach Rick Pitino has had 26 of his former assistants or players rise to a collegiate head coaching position. Kareem Richardson, an assistant on the 2012-13 staff, became the latest to join that list when he was named the head coach at Missouri-Kansas City on March 19. Pitino's son, Richard Pitino, added his name to that list in April of 2012 when he was named head coach at FIU and now is at Minnesota. There are eight additional former assistants as current head coaches to bring the total to 11 active, including Mick Cronin at Cincinnati; Scott Davenport at Bellarmine; Billy Donovan at Florida; Steve Masiello at Manhattan; Marvin Menzies at New Mexico State; Herb Sendek at Arizona St.; Reggie Theus at Cal State Northridge; Kevin Willard at Seton Hall; and Tubby Smith at Texas Tech. Four active coaches reached the NCAA Tournament in 2013 (Cronin, Donovan, Menzies and Smith). Pitino's 10 Division I former assistants as current head coaches is the most in the nation (Sendek second with eight).

Pitino has a collective 34-10 record in games against his former assistants (3-0 vs. Ralph Willard; 7-5 Tubby Smith; 7-0 Billy Donovan, 6-5 Mick Cronin, 1-0 Scott Davenport, 1-0 Marvin Menzies, 6-0 Kevin Willard, 1-0 Steve Masiello, 1-0 Richard Pitino, 1-0 Kareem Richardson). Davenport's team won the 2011 NCAA Division II Championship. Indiana Pacers head coach Frank Vogel was a student manager for Pitino at Kentucky and his video coordinator with the Celtics. Pitino coached current Golden State Warriors coach Mark Jackson at the New York Knicks. Six former Pitino players also became collegiate head coaches, four of which are currently active, including Travis Ford of Oklahoma St.; Sean Woods of Morehead St.; Donovan and Masiello. Including games against both his 25 former assistants and former players who went on to become collegiate head coaches, Pitino is 39-11 (record vs. former players as head coaches: 3-1 vs. Travis Ford, 2-0 vs. John Pelphrey and Donovan).

- Statistical Trends U of L is 140-9 over the last 13 seasons under Coach Rick Pitino when scoring 80 or more points (12-1 this season, 11-1 in 2012-13) ... Over the past 13 years under Pitino, Louisville is 114-6 when shooting 50 percent or better from the field (11-0 this year, 10-0 in 2012-13) ... U of L is 261-42 when holding its opponent below 70 points over the past 13 years under Pitino (16-1 this year, 32-1 in 2012-13).
- Don't Count the Cards Out Louisville has rallied from nine or more points down to win on 19 occasions over the last four seasons, including seven times last season. Two occurred in both games of the Final Four as Louisville trailed by 12 points to both Wichita State and Michigan before storming back to win both games. The Cardinals fell behind by 16 (45-29) with 15:51 to play in the second half against Syracuse in the the BIG EAST Championship game. A 27-3 run put Louisville up to stay and the Cardinals completed the remarkable recovery by outscoring Syracuse 56-26 in the second half. Also in 2012-13, the Cards trailed by 16 at Memphis before recovering, were down 13 in the first half against Illinois State on Dec. 1 before coming back, and Providence and Connecticut both led by 10 in the first half.

The Cardinals pulled off a dramatic comeback victory against Florida in the 2012 NCAA West Region Championship after trailing by 11 with 8:04 remaining (65-54), using an 18-3 closing run to cap the Louisville victory and sending the Cardinals to their ninth Final Four. Also in 2011-12, UofL was down 17 at DePaul with 5:17 left in the first half (34-17) before rallying for the win. One of the most improbable recoveries occurred two years ago when the Cardinals beat Marquette 71-70 on Jan. 15, 2011 after U of L had trailed by 18 with 5:44 to play.

■ Road Trip — Louisville had a four-game stretch of road games with a span of 23 days between home games between Dec. 17 and its next home game on Jan. 9. It was the longest mid-season stretch between home games since the 1980-81 season, when UofL played a home game on Dec. 22 and returned to Freedom Hall on Jan. 17. It was the first time the Cardinals have played four straight true road games since 2000-01 (Feb. 14, 17, 21 and 24).

- Horsing Around UofL Coach Rick Pitino has participated as a thoroughbred race horse owner since 1988 and over the last two years has named five of his horses in honor of Cardinal players. His most recent additions have been colts named "Megatrez" after Montrezl Harrell and "Three Point Luke" after Luke Hancock. Last year, he named three horses after Cardinals: "Russdiculous" after Russ Smith (Russdiculous was purchased by another owner after a claiming race last year); "Siva" after former UofL guard Peyton Siva; and "Gorgui" after former Cardinal center Gorqui Dieng. Four horses — Halory Hunter, The Groom is Red, AP Valentine and Goldencents — of which Pitino was a partial owner have won Grade I races. To put that success in perspective, just 0.6 percent of NorthAmerican thoroughbreds ever win a stakes race. Goldencents ran in the Kentucky Derby last year.
- Cards Will Open in Puerto Rico Next Season — UofL will open its 2014-15 season against Minnesota in the 2014 Armed Forces Classic, an ESPN-televised event which will be played on the U.S. Coast Guard base in Puerto Rico on Dec. 14. The game will be a father-son matchup of UofL Coach Rick Pitino and his son Richard Pitino, the first-year head coach of the Gophers. The United States Air Station Boringuen in Puerto Rico will be the site of the event, which serves as part of ESPN's America's Heroes: A Salute to Our Veterans initiative honoring the men and women who are serving and who have served in the United States military, both at home and abroad.
- Smith Pours in 36 All-America guard Russ Smith scored a career-high 36 points against North Carolina on Nov. 24. It is tied for the eighth most points ever scored by a Louisville player and was the most since Samardo Samuels scored 36 against Notre Dame on Feb. 17, 2010. His 22 first-half points were three short of a school record. Smith has moved up to 12th on the all-time UofL scoring list with his current total of 1,656 career points; he needs 29 to move up to No. 11 and 30 to No. 10 on the Louisville career scoring list. Smith has scored 30 or more in a game five times in his career and twice this season, totaling 30 vs. Hofstra in the Cardinals' second game. He has scored 20 or more points in 28 games over the last two seasons. Smith has scored 20 or more in 15 of his last 32 games dating back to last season. In addition to his scoring, Smith is the Cardinals' leader in assists (4.7 apg) and three-point goals (50).

2 Russ Smith

G 6-0 165 Sr. - 3L Brooklyn, N.Y. (South Kent School)

- Just the fourth Louisville player in history with at least 1,600 points, 300 assists, and 200 steals. Has scored in double figures in each game this season.
- Scoring output has improved to 20.1 in league play second in the AAC while his 18.3 overall average is second. In conference-only games, he is second in 3-pointers (2.6/game), third in 3-point field goal percentage (.531), fourth in steals (2.0), and tied for fourth in assists (4.4).
- Tallied 17 points at Houston, giving him 1,656 for his career and good enough for No. 12 all-time. He needs 29 to tie Billy Thompson (1,685 points, 1982-86) for 11th.
- Recorded 27 points on 9-of-14 shooting vs. UCF, adding five rebounds and two steals.
  - Dropped 23 at Connecticut, including a 12-of-15 performance at the charity stripe.
- Had 18 points against Houston when he hit 4-of-5 shots from 3-point range and added five rebounds, four assists, and three steals.
- Has gathered at least one steal in 15 of last 19 games. With 224 career steals, he is three steals short of tying LaBradford Smith (227 steals, 1987-91) for third.
- Scored 30 or more in a game five times in his career and twice this season. He has scored 20 or more points in 27 games over the last two seasons; and has scored 20 or more in 15 of his last 32.
- Overall, ranks third in the AAC in assists (4.7/game), fourth in 3-pointers made (2.2/game), tied for fifth in steals (1.8/game), and 11th in assist/turnover ratio (1.5).
  - Totaled 23 points, seven assists, and tied a season-high with four steals vs. SMU.
  - Tallied 19 points and tied a season high with four steals against Memphis.
  - Made a career-best 14 free throws en route to 22 points against Rutgers.
- Totaled 24 points versus UCF behind a career-tying high six 3-pointers. He also had nine assists and four steals, matching a season best.
  - Posted third career double-double, with 14 points and 10 assists against WKU.
- Had a double-double of 10 points and 11 assists against UMKC, along with three steals. It was the first double-double of that kind since Peyton Siva had 15 points and 13 assists last season (Villanova, 1/22/13).
